CLINTON SAVINGS BANK PROMOTES SIX EMPLOYEES

(CLINTON, Mass., January 23, 2012) – Clinton Savings Bank (clintonsavings.com) today announced that it has promoted six employees who regularly demonstrate their value and commitment to the Bank and its customers.

Majlinda Haxhiaj was promoted to Vice President/Branch Administrative Manager. A 13-year veteran of CSB, she manages the main office in Clinton and the Nashoba High School banking program. With this promotion, she will now support branch administration with special projects, such as overseeing a forthcoming retail sales program.

Debra Minor, with the Bank since 2007, was promoted to Vice President/Credit Manager. In addition to serving as a credit analyst, she will now also supervise the commercial credit analysts and manage daily workflow.

Linnea Miley was promoted to Credit Analyst and is responsible for completing commercial credit evaluations. She has been with the Bank since 2005.

Holly Connors was promoted to Vice President of Operations/Contact Center. She has been with the Bank since 2007, during which time she was instrumental in establishing the Contact Center. Ms. Connors will continue to be responsible for directing the Operations Department and Contact Center.

Elizabeth Henry, with the Bank since 2008, was promoted to Compliance Manager and Officer in the compliance department. She will be responsible for audit monitoring and verification, as well as other compliance-related duties.

Jamie Cortes, who joined Clinton Savings Bank in 2005, was promoted to Business Analyst. As part of the Information Technology team, she will focus on special projects for the Bank and work with Department Managers to streamline processes and gain efficiencies.
