

CLINTON SAVINGS BANK APPOINTS WOLFENDALE NEW STERLING BRANCH MANAGER

Hubbardston Resident Brings Extensive Management Experience to Position

(CLINTON, Mass., June 10, 2009) – Clinton Savings Bank today announced that Jill Wolfendale has joined their team as branch manager for the Bank’s Sterling branch. In this position, Wolfendale will supervise the staff and lead the initiative to provide exceptional customer service and banking products.

“Having been a branch manager for over 10 years, Jill comes to us with a solid understanding of what local banking is all about,” says Clinton Savings Bank Vice President & Branch Administrator Cynthia L. Alden “I’m confident that Jill’s commitment to the community and track record of exceptional customer service will have a positive impact on our bank.”

With more than 10 years of banking experience, Wolfendale was most recently employed by Sovereign Bank, serving five of those years as the branch manager of the Sterling and the Clinton branches. She is a graduate of Fitchburg State College, having earned a Master of Business Administration with a focus in Management in 2007. She also holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Computer Information Systems.

She and her family currently reside in Hubbardston, Mass.

About Clinton Savings Bank

Established in 1851, Clinton Savings Bank is among the oldest mutual community banks in Massachusetts. With more than $490 million in assets and a broad range of financial products for consumers and businesses, Clinton Savings Bank has built a solid reputation in the communities which it serves from six full-service branches in Berlin, Bolton, Boylston, Clinton, Sterling and West Boylston. For more information, please visit clintonsavings.com.

###