CLINTON SAVINGS BANK DONATES $1,000 TO HELP PUBLISH BOOK ABOUT CLINTON

Proceeds from Book Sales Help Neighbors in Need

(CLINTON, Mass., December 13, 2011) – Clinton Savings Bank (clintonsavings.com) today announced that $1,000 was donated to help local businessman Bill Coulter publish his book, "Where the Hell is Clinton?" All proceeds from book sales will go to The Item Appeal, a nonprofit organization founded in 1976 by Coulter and others to help neighbors in need of food and financial support.

"Bill is a respected neighbor with a long history of supporting the community by publishing books of local interest," said Clinton Savings Bank President & CEO Robert J. Paulhus, Jr. "We hope that everyone purchases a copy of the book, especially this holiday season, so that The Item Appeal can continue to support the ever-increasing requests of local residents."

"Where the Hell is Clinton?" is on sale for $15 at several businesses in downtown Clinton, including Duvarney Jewelers, Sunrise Boutique, Thurston House and The Item newspaper office.
