

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CLINTON SAVINGS BANK NAMES MARK E. LAMOUNTAIN AS MORTGAGE ADVISOR

(CLINTON, Mass., June 2, 2011) -- Clinton Savings Bank today announced Mark E. LaMountain is the new as Assistant Vice President, Mortgage Originator. In this position, he will help homebuyers and homeowners find the residential mortgage or home equity product that fits their individual situation.

LaMountain brings an impressive background in home lending to the position, with 25 years of experience in the financial industry, and more than 15 years as a residential mortgage professional. Prior to joining Clinton Savings Bank, he worked as a loan officer at North Brookfield Savings Bank. He has also worked at United Bank, Commonwealth National Bank, Banknorth Mortgage Company and Guaranty Bank. LaMountain is also an active member of the Massachusetts Bankers Association and currently serves on the Real Estate Finance Committee.

"Buying a home has always been stressful for consumers, and the challenges of the last few years have amplified their concerns, which is why it's important for homebuyers to work with a mortgage person they trust," said Edward M. Powers, Chief Lending Officer at Clinton Savings Bank. "Mark brings a level of experience and expertise that allows him to make the process easy and understandable. I'm confident he will be an incredibly valuable resource for our customers."

A graduate of Bryant College with a degree in business management, LaMountain and his family live in Worcester, Mass.

About Clinton Savings Bank

Established in 1851, Clinton Savings Bank is among the oldest mutual community banks in Massachusetts. With more than $492 million in assets and a broad range of financial products for consumers and businesses, Clinton Savings Bank has built a solid reputation in the communities which it serves from six full-service branches in Berlin, Bolton, Boylston, Clinton, Sterling and West Boylston. For more information, please visit clintonsavings.com.

