CLINTON SAVINGS BANK PROMOTES DANIELLE MCCARTER TO AVP/HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGER

(CLINTON, Mass., October 24, 2011) – Clinton Savings Bank today announced that Lancaster-resident Danielle McCarter has been promoted to assistant vice president/human resources manager. In this position, she will be responsible for administering benefits and payroll programs; implementing human resources policies and procedures; maintaining compliance with all applicable state and federal regulations; and recruiting, hiring and retaining employees, among other responsibilities.

“During Danielle’s 13-year tenure with us, she has continually proved to be a valuable asset to the bank and most importantly, our employees,” said Linda M. Midura, vice president/director of human resources. “Her professionalism and contributions to the Bank earn her this well deserved promotion.”

McCarter gained her bachelor’s in business administration from Framingham State College and stays abreast of industry best practices by maintaining membership with the Society for Human Resources Management and CMEA The Employers Association. An involved member of the community, she has been a proud supporter of Meals on Wheels for the Clinton Senior Center, for three years.
