We are pleased to make this service available to you at no additional cost and will allow you to view your current and past statements on our secure website. You understand that your statements will include information concerning your Deposit Accounts with Clinton Savings Bank, and may include disclosures required under the Electronic Funds Transfer Act, the Truth-In-Savings Act and/or similar consumer disclosure laws. You agree to the receipt of these consumer disclosures in electronic format described herein.

You must be an authorized signer/user on this account. Clinton Savings Bank will send you an email on a monthly basis notifying you that your statement(s) is ready to be viewed. In order to send you notification of your current eStatement, we must always have your current email address on file. To access eStatements simply log into our Online Banking system at www.clintonsavings.com and click eStatements under the Account Access tab (Business Banking users should click eStatements under the Online Services tab). The preferred internet browser is Microsoft Internet Explorer, version 4.04 or higher. You will also need a printer attached to the computer you are using if you would like to create a paper copy of your eStatement(s). By requesting to receive your statements electronically, you are telling Clinton Savings Bank that you have printing capabilities.

By submitting this request, you authorize Clinton Savings Bank to discontinue sending statements via postal mail service and begin providing your statement information electronically.
