CLINTON SAVINGS BANK HIRES NEW AVP/BOLTON BRANCH MANAGER

(CLINTON, Mass., September 13, 2018) – Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) announced that Patricia M. Smith (Pat) has been hired as the new AVP/Branch Manager for its Bolton branch. In Smith’s role, she will oversee branch staff to foster and further develop CSB’s relationship banking experience for both individuals and businesses within the Bolton area.

“We know that Pat’s extensive banking experience will add great value to our staff and will provide both business and personal customers alike with superior and comprehensive customer service. We are excited to have her on board and look forward to Pat’s influence on our Relationship Banking team,” stated Nicole L. Martin, Vice President, Retail Sales Manager at Clinton Savings Bank.

Smith was previously employed by Fidelity Bank and has over thirty-seven years of banking industry knowledge. She holds a Bachelor’s of Business Administration from Assumption College in Worcester, MA and currently resides in Westborough with her family. She enjoys spending her time golfing, reading, and contributing as a Board member for the YWCA. Smith was recognized in 2008 as a Women of Distinction awarded by Girl Scouts of Central & Western Massachusetts.
