CLINTON SAVINGS BANK EMPLOYEES DONATE TO HOPE LIVES HERE

(CLINTON, Mass., October 31, 2019) –Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) recently presented a check for $624 to the Hope Lives Here organization, located in Holden, MA. This contribution was raised by CSB employees and then matched by the Bank. Every quarter, CSB employees are invited to participate in a bank-wide day where employees donate to a predetermined local cause and in turn enjoy wearing jeans for the day.

“Hope Lives Here, as a small non-profit, relies on the generosity of our supporters and their donations to provide the resources we need to help our clients. We are humbled that Clinton Savings Bank would select us as a beneficiary. It is so wonderful to see businesses truly working to make a difference in our communities. Thank you!” said Patty Inwood, Hope Lives Here’s founder.

About Hope Lives Here Non-Profit Organization

Patty Inwood came up with the idea of Hope Lives Here after the loss of her own son, Luke, to suicide in April 2015. The Inwoods' were immediately surrounded by an outpouring of love and support which eased their heartache and helped to move them forward. In the years to follow, Patty realized that not everyone had that same network and wanted to create a space in her community where others who were hurting from loss could come together and feel less alone. The result was Hope Lives Here. Hope Lives Here's mission is to help people make connections with others who are also struggling with loss by providing support in the form of outreach, peer to peer (one-on-one) and support groups (meditation groups, support groups, etc.)
