CLINTON SAVINGS BANK PROMOTES MAJLINDA HAXHIAJ TO VICE PRESIDENT SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

(CLINTON, Mass., March 2, 2020) – Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) recently announced that Majlinda Haxhijaj has been promoted to the role of Vice President, Small Business Development Officer. Since starting this position, Haxhijaj has developed and implemented growth strategies within and between organizations, playing an integral role in creating long-term value for customers and relationships.

“Ms. Haxhijaj has been with CSB for 21 years. She has an extensive background in banking coupled with her active participation in our community for decades now, consumes a in depth knowledge of the market allowing her to build key customer relationships and identify new opportunities for the Bank,” said Leonard A. Anctil, Senior Vice President, Senior Commercial Loan Officer.

Prior to moving to Worcester where she currently resides, Haxhijaj grew up in Tirana-Albania where she received her MBA in Economics at the University of Tirana-Albania while later earning her MBA in Business Administration at Nichols College in Dudley, MA. Before joining CSB, Haxhijaj held the role of Foreign affairs and letter of credits department-Officer at the National Commercial Bank of Albania.

Haxhijaj has been married to her husband Sami for 30 years and has two children, Marin and Kristi. When she is not at the Bank, Haxhijaj enjoys traveling to her native homeland of Albania. For the past 5 years Haxhijaj has served as a Board member of the Clinton Rotary Club and was President from 2017-2018. She was the recipient of the Paul Harris Fellow Award from Rotary International in 2019 for her dedication to the community.
