CLINTON SAVINGS BANK DONATES $6,700 TO RENOVATE THE TOWN OF BOYLSTON'S GAZEBO

(CLINTON, Mass., August 27th, 2020) –Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) was proud to support the local Boylston Lions Club efforts to renovate the town's Gazebo with a $6,700 donation.

"For decades the Boylston Lions Club has volunteered their time and raised hundreds of thousands of dollars that have helped the Boylston community." said Robert J. Paulhus Jr., President & CEO of Clinton Savings Bank. "In 2008, CSB was the first financial institution to open in the town and we have been a strong supporter of the many projects throughout the years. When the Lions Club approached CSB for a donation to renovate the 100-year-old gazebo that has held many town events we were excited to keep that tradition going."

About Boylston Lions Club

The Boylston Lions Club has proudly served Boylston and Lions International for over 50 years. While the initial mission of Lions International is to cure blindness, that mission has expanded to diabetes cures and treatments and disaster relief, among many others.

We remain very committed to these core charities, but also have a focus on our community. We donate to youth sports programs, support scholarships for graduating students, as well as support our senior citizens and schools.

If you would like to know more about what we do or to donate please visit us at www.boylstonlionsclub.org.
