CLINTON SAVINGS PROVIDES

$7,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

CLINTON, Mass. – JUNE 15, 2021 – Clinton Savings Bank is proud to announce the 2021 class scholarships. For the 13th-consecutive year, seven exceptional high school seniors were awarded a $1,000 scholarship to support their respective college educations.

Student graduate winners were selected based upon accomplishments in the areas of academics, leadership, community service, and extracurricular activities. The students awarded the Clinton Savings Bank Scholarships are: Adrianna Durand, from Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School and attending University of Massachusetts Amherst; Emma Brouillet, from Clinton High School and attending Clark University; Emily Ramos, from Nashoba Regional High School and attending Mount Wachusett Community College; Austin Slack, from Tahanto Regional High School and attending the University of New Haven; Issa Kabundi, from Wachusett Regional High School and attending the University of Rhode Island; Ian Andrachick, from West Boylston High School and attending Worcester State University and Abbie Gilman, from Assabet Valley Regional Technical High School and attending Fitchburg State University.

“After a challenging few years, the class of 2021 has displayed an extraordinary amount of patience and persistence in their senior year journey to graduation,” said Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., Clinton Savings Bank’s President & CEO. “Having faced many obstacles during their academic years, we are thrilled to continue our longtime tradition of awarding these scholarships to the hardworking students that very much deserve them. Congratulations to all of the graduating seniors and we look forward to seeing all that you accomplish in the years to come!”
