CLINTON SAVINGS' ROBERT J. PAULHUS, JR. RE-ELECTED AS CHAIRMAN OF THE UMASS MEMORIAL HEALTH-HEALTHALLIANCE - CLINTON HOSPITAL BOARD

Clinton, Mass (August 18, 2021) — Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) is pleased to announce that Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., President & CEO, has been re-elected to serve as the Chairman of the UMass Memorial Health-HealthAlliance - Clinton Hospital.

"We are excited to have Bob Paulhus continue to serve on the UMass Memorial Health-HealthAlliance - Clinton Hospital Board. Throughout the years, Bob has demonstrated strong leadership capabilities, a passion to better the HealthAlliance community, as well as bringing his decades of knowledge in the financial sector. We are excited to continue to have Bob as a member of our board and look forward to seeing how he will apply himself in this role in the years to come," said Steve Roach, President at UMass Memorial Health-HealthAlliance - Clinton Hospital and Marlborough Hospital.

Prior to his current appointment, Paulhus was appointed to the UMass Memorial Clinton Hospital in January of 2014 and then elected as Chairman of Clinton Hospital Board in March of 2017. A community leader, Paulhus is the Treasurer and Board Member of the Clinton Rotary Club, a Foundation member for Clinton Hospital and received the Distinguished Service Award from the Dr. Franklin Perkins School in 2013. He was past treasurer for the Wachusett Chamber of Commerce and the 2008 recipient of their Chairman's Award. In addition, he served as a past Treasurer for WHEAT Community Services, Inc. in Clinton.

With almost 40 years of experience in the industry, Bob joined Clinton Savings Bank as Senior Vice President of Commercial Lending in September 1999 and was promoted in 2008 to Executive Vice President. In September 2008 he took the helm as President and confirmed as CEO in February of 2009. Mr. Paulhus attended Clark University's M.B.A. Program and holds a B.A. in Economics from College of the Holy Cross. He resides in Ashland, Mass., with his wife and daughter.
