Clinton Savings Bank announces David Darvish will join the Bank as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

(CLINTON, Mass., July 27, 2022) – Clinton Savings Bank (CSB), announces the appointment of David Darvish as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective July 25, 2022. Mr. Darvish brings over 14 years of financial and accounting experience in related industries with the last five years in the banking industry, having served most recently as the Vice President Finance Officer at First Seacoast Bank, Dover, NH.

As CFO, Darvish will report directly to Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., President & CEO, and as a member of the Bank's senior management team will oversee the finance, accounting and functions at CSB, as well as asset and liability management, financial planning and analysis and investments. He will also chair the Bank's Asset Liability Management Committee.

"David is a seasoned financial professional with broad financial services experience and a strong track record of success," said Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., President & CEO of Clinton Savings Bank. "Both our board and management team are eager to benefit from his strategic insights and financial expertise which will be important contributors to our continued success," added Mr. Paulhus, and we look forward to partnering with David as we continue to execute our strategy of delivering the best banking experience throughout central MA."

Mr. Darvish is a certified public accountant and graduated from Bentley College, Waltham, MA. with a Bachelor of Science, Accountancy and a Master of Science in Accountancy.
