CLINTON SAVINGS' ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF ELLEN J. MCGOVERN AS CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD FOR UNITED WAY OF TRI-COUNTY

Clinton, Mass (August 4, 2022) —Clinton Savings Bank is pleased to announce the appointment of Ellen J. McGovern, SVP/Chief Marketing Officer (CMO), to chairman of the board for a one-year term, which began on August 1, 2022.

“The mission of the United Way of Tri-county resonates with me on a deeply personal level,” McGovern said. “I am proud for the last four years to be part of an organization whose mission is to increase the organized capacity of people to care for one another in our communities that can produce significant and measurable results in the areas of education, income and health.

“We are honored to welcome Ellen as chairman of our board,” stated Paul Mina, President and Chief Executive Officer, United Way of Tri-County. “Her commitment to our board and mission along with her strong leadership abilities, a passion to make significant changes within the community, and with her extensive background in financial services, we believe she will an excellent chairman of the board.”

McGovern has been with Clinton Savings Bank for over 22 years and has shown exemplary commitment as a dedicated and active member of the community in serving as a Board member for the Nashua Valley Council Boy Scouts of America, Robert F. Kennedy Children’s Action Corps, volunteer on the Shrewsbury High School Committee, acknowledged as a Girl Scout Woman of Distinction, as well as industry committees such as the Mass Bankers Public Affairs Committee, Banking and Financial Services Group, Marketing Professionals Network, Women in Banking, and the CMO Executive Network. In addition, McGovern has received notable awards for community involvement as well as educational programs from the New England Financial Marketing Association.

McGovern holds a bachelor of arts from Worcester State College and a Masters in Business Administration from Nichols College.

About the United Way of Tri-County The United Way of Tri-County was incorporated in 1997 through the merging of five United Way organizations: The United Way of Assabet Valley, United Way of Neponset Valley, the United Way of MetroWest, the Westborough United Way, and the Clinton Community United Way. The United Way of Tri-County is one of 1340 locally operated and controlled United Way organizations in America. Today we provide service to thousands of our neighbors and friends in 34 communities throughout Norfolk, Middlesex, and Worcester Counties.
