Clinton Savings Bank Announces Officer Promotions

(CLINTON, Mass., August 15, 2022) – Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) recently announced the promotion of two staff members, Jamie Cortes and Michelle Iacoboni.

Jamie has been promoted to the position of Officer, following her accomplishments as Marketing Research Analyst. She has helped manage the tremendous success that Clinton Savings Bank has had in analyzing social media, paid and organic website search traffic, and website data across a portfolio of projects.

Michelle a 13-year veteran of the Bank, has been promoted to the position of Officer, following her contributions as Executive Assistant to the President & CEO as well as the Board of Directors. In addition to Michelle's current role she will oversee the Bank's facilities area.

Clinton Savings Bank is pleased to recognize these talented professionals, who have earned the deep respect of customers and employees alike. Both are passionate about delivering service at the highest level while making the experience enjoyable. Jamie and Michelle intend to build upon the success that they have had and look forward to a bright future at Clinton Savings Bank in assisting to further expand the Bank's product offerings and services and geographic reach.
