Clinton Savings Bank announces the hiring of Corinne Hansen as VP, Branch Manager of the Main office

(CLINTON, Mass., September 29, 2022) – Clinton Savings Bank (CSB), is pleased to announce that experienced local banker Corinne Hansen recently accepted the position of Vice President, Branch Manager in the Bank’s Main office.

Prior to joining CSB, Hansen most recently served as a branch manager at Webster First Federal Credit Union, and she possesses over two decades of banking experience.

In her role, she will oversee branch operations and focus on business development opportunities. “We are excited to have Corinne on the team,” stated Andrea Santiago, Senior Vice President, Branch Administration. “Her extensive experience in our community, combined with her leadership and managerial skills will be a valuable asset to the Bank and our customers.”

Hansen currently resides in Clinton and is attending the New England College of Business.
