CLINTON SAVINGS BANK DONATES TO SAVE EXOTIC ANIMALS

(CLINTON, Mass., December 20, 2022) – Clinton Savings Bank recently donated $1,500.00 to support Animal Adventures, with locations in Bolton and soon to be Hubbardston, MA. The exotic animal rescue’s mission is to provide a home to unwanted and unable to be cared for animals. Their instructive nature educational sessions, offered to many schools, libraries, colleges, and other functions along with tours and classes of their facilities, connects people of all ages to their natural world through educational hands-on experiences to promote curiosity, exploration and knowledge.

“Thanks to the support of Clinton Savings Bank, individuals get to experience the excitement of nature that both inspires and informs. This year we were excited to have a visit with Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., President & CEO of the Bank to show off some of the stars of our Island of Misfit Animals winter program.” said Chris Geary, General Manager.

About Animal Adventures

Animal Adventures is an exotic animal rescue organization founded by Ed and Brenda Laquidara in 1997, in Bolton, MA. Their mission is to save animals by providing a safe and healthy environment that preserves and nourishes life that may otherwise become extinct due to environmental forces.
