CLINTON SAVINGS BANK AWARDS $9,000

IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

CLINTON, Mass. – JUNE 15, 2023 – Clinton Savings Bank is proud to announce their class of 2023 scholarship recipients. For the 15th-consecutive year, eight outstanding high school seniors were awarded a $1,000 scholarship and two seniors from the Bank's Banking Program were awarded a $500 scholarship, to support their respective college educations.

Student winners were selected based upon accomplishments in the areas of academics, leadership, community service, and extracurricular activities. The students awarded the Clinton Savings Bank Scholarships are: Katelyn Castillo, graduating from Tahanto Regional High School and attending Quinsigamond Community College; Kaylie Collins, graduating from Wachusett Regional High School and attending Massachusetts College of Art and Design; Sylvia Dempsey, graduating from Shrewsbury High School and attending Rhode Island College; Braiden Fournier, graduating from Clinton High School and attending University of Connecticut; Aaron King, graduating from Nashoba Regional High School and attending University of Massachusetts Lowell; Chialia Yang, graduating from Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School and attending University of Massachusetts Boston; Jessica Pano, graduating from West Boylston High School and attending Worcester State University; and Samantha Phillips, graduating from Assabet Valley Regional Technical High School and attending Merrimack College. The students awarded the Clinton Savings Bank Banking Program Scholarships are: Lydia Beck, graduating from Nashoba Regional High School and attending Worcester State University and Lileaka Krasnow-Thomas, graduating from Tahanto Regional High School and attending Fitchburg State University.

"The annual awarding of scholarships to high school seniors is just one major facet of Clinton Savings Bank's commitment to supporting young people's educational journey" said Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., Clinton Savings Bank's President & CEO. "The scholarships are designed to recognize and reward exceptional students who demonstrate leadership, a commitment to public service, and a desire to make an impact on their communities. We are proud that the winners of the scholarships will be attending various accredited colleges and universities that will support their dreams."
