Clinton Savings Bank donates $10,000 to the Shrewsbury Police for a new digital message board

(CLINTON, Mass., October 11, 2023) – Clinton Savings Bank, (CSB), is proud to announce the donation of $10,000 to the Shrewsbury Police Department to purchase a portable digital message board for the town. The digital board will allow the police department to display messages for road work, inclement weather, safety and town events.

“With a population almost 40,000, public safety is always one of our first priorities”, said Kevin Anderson, Chief of Police. “We are grateful to have Clinton Savings Bank in our town, and to partner with them to enhance the safety of our community together.”

“Since our beginning in 1851, we have been committed to being a local leader in each of the communities we serve. When we opened our seventh branch in Shrewsbury this past March we were thrilled to finally bring our services and support, starting with this donation, to the town, said President & CEO, Robert J. Paulhus, Jr. “We are eager to continue to serve the local people and businesses with these values at the forefront of what we do every day.”
