Clinton Savings Bank Helps Local Kids for the Holiday Season

(CLINTON, Mass., December 20, 2023) – Once again this season Clinton Savings Bank’s employees rallied support amongst each other, along with area residents, to provide gifts to 75 local children to spread some Hope for the Holidays who otherwise might not receive anything.

“The holiday season is a time of joy for so many of us. However, for families in need, the holiday season presents more hardship as they face the decision to buy necessities over gifts for their children.,” said President & CEO, Robert J. Paulhus, Jr. “Fortunately, the United Way of Tri-County’s Hope for the Holidays program provides a wonderful opportunity for our staff and neighbors to support these families and donate locally through WHEAT Community Connections here in Clinton, Ma.”
